

Note to testers on November 15:

New entries are due today in your online Film Portfolio (see #4 - and today's entry includes required research)...

BUT, if you need more time, I will not check/give a score for your entries until Saturday (11/17) at 8pm IF at the least, you do this tonight:

In your Film Portfolio, under the appropriate role heading (meaning under the heading for the role you have taken on for this production), and after this sub-heading Film/Assignment Title: add the actual title of your current film.

This is how it should look if your film title was The Black Flamingo.

Cinematographer

Film/Assignment Title: The Black Flamingo

Comments on how I'm feeling about the film, etc. etc. from my 11/8 entry...
