

Winter Break Homework

1) Watch movies.

2) As an assignment, you are required to watch at least one movie and submit movie name and a brief comment* about the movie. It would be preferable if you watched said movie/s with friends and/or family.

3) If you watch additional movies (as you should!) and submit comments, you can earn bonus points. Bonus points will be minimal but the more movies the better (as always☺).

- and there will be a prize for the person who has the luxury of watching the most movies over break (so be sure to add comments for all the ones you watch)

4) You will complete the online survey for each movie you watch (remember, you are required to watch at least one).

 for the comment, please write a short, Tweet-like/length (140-280 CHARACTERS - not words, it should be very brief) comment about the movie. If the movie is not named in the comment, please add with a hashtag or in parentheses at the end*
