

Assignment:

- 1) Find a SCREENPLAY* online from a favorite movie (or a movie you know fairly well)
- 2) Look through it.
- 3) Print 2 to 4 pages of the screenplay.
 - Do NOT print the whole thing!
 - And try to print pages that you remember the scene/dialog from

Due in class Thursday, September 12 (your 2-4 printed pages are due at the start of class this day).

Here are a couple websites that have collections of screenplays. Or you can search for your favorite – adding “screenplay pdf” after the title will help in the search. Not all are online, but many, many are.

Daily Scripts

Simply Scripts

*Differences between a screenplay and a transcription. Please be sure you find a screenplay online.

Screenplay

```
CUT TO:

INT. M.I.T. CLASSROOM -- DAY

The classroom is packed with graduate students and TOM.
PROFESSOR LAMBEAU (52) is at the lectern. The chalkboard behind him is covered with theorems.

                LAMBEAU
Please finish McKinley by next month.
Many of you probably had this as undergraduates in real analysis. It won't hurt to brush up. I am also putting an advanced fourier system on
the main hallway chalkboard--

Everyone groans.

                LAMBEAU (cont'd)
I'm hoping that one of you might prove it by the end of the semester. The first person to do so will not only be in my good graces, but go on to fame and fortune by having their accomplishment recorded and their name printed in the auspicious "M.I.T. Tech."

Prof. Lambeau holds up a thin publication entitled "M.I.T.
Tech." Everyone laughs.

                LAMBEAU (cont'd)
Former winners include Nobel Laureates, world renowned astro-physicists, Field's Medal winners and lowly M.I.T.
professors.

More laughs.

                LAMBEAU (cont'd)
Okay. That is all.
```

Transcriptions (they don't all say transcript, but notice the different between these)

```
Say Anything

Transcribed by Judith Allen

CREDITS ROLL

COREY
I don't feel anything.

DC
Come on, it's graduation.

COREY
Did you see what Mr Carroll wrote in my yearbook? Well, he ridiculed me all year long, and then he writes, "You're a real live-wire, Love Mr Carroll." Y'know, it's all so phoney.

EXT. SEATTLE - DAY

DC
He wants to leave things on a good note.

COREY
Well, where Mr Carroll uses the word 'love', I look for a new word.

INT. COREY'S ROOM - DAY

LLOYD DOBLER, COREY FLOOD AND DC are talking together.

DC
Lloyd, she's being difficult.

LLOYD
I'm going to take out Diane Court again.

COREY
That's unlikely.

LLOYD
The movies are a good second date, you know, as a date?
```