A couple of you were noticing the videos we have in the library storage room; there are quite a few great ones (some of them I have no idea what class it would have related to?). They are not really for student check out, but I know people and we can make it work... so if you see something here you'd like to watch, let me know. Maybe take a couple home for a weekend or over break? I'd be happy to give you suggestions. And some of these are foreign films that would fulfill the assignment due Nov. 30 - just ask.
