

Choose one movie that you have made for IB Film that you would like to submit for consideration in our film festival.

By Monday (5/14), 8am complete this survey.

And FYI...Movie you have made*:

First Film (October)

Film Two (happy/sad, November)

Semester Final/January Film

March Film

Goldilocks (current – and I know most of you are not done, but the survey isn't due until after the final copy is finished)

Also – if you want to add other films you have made, you need to get those to me by May 21.

Keep these requirements in mind: The content and treatment of the films made must be appropriate. Mature themes are acceptable but their treatment must be suitable for young teenagers. The use of strong language must be rare and fully justified by the context. Violence must not dwell on detail and there should be no emphasis on specific injuries or blood. Sexual violence may only be implied and indicated without physical detail. Dangerous techniques of combat should include no imitable detail, and realistic and contemporary weapons should not be glamourized. In horror films, sustained threat and menace is permitted, but only occasional gory moments. If drug use is referred to, only brief and occasional references are permitted, and must be justified by the context and demonstrate the dangers of such behavior. There must be no indication, in any instructional form, as to how the drugs are taken.
