

Write a Story Idea...

→ Choose a Situation:

1) An interesting girl meets boy*/love story – needs a protagonist, goal, obstacle/s, and resolution.

OR

2) Scenario: somehow you got locked inside the school overnight and you must get out (there needs to be some sort of resolution).

OR

3) Another idea you already have for a good/interesting/thought-provoking/introspective/etc. story.

→ Some Specifics:

1) Write your story in prose (sentences/paragraphs, it does not need to be in screenplay format).

2) Must be typed.

3) AND IN ADDITION to this new story, on the same document you need to include the log lines for the other three screenplays you have written.

You wrote your first one in September, then you wrote a “happy” and a “sad” screenplay last month.

Reminder: The logline is a sentence that explains your story and entices the reader to want to know more (article).

→ Due Date: Wednesday, December 13. Paper copy due at the start of class.
